

FINANCIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT FOR PSYCHOLOGICAL STRATEGY BOARD

Agreement between the Department of State the Department of Defense and the Central Intelligence Agency

The purpose of this agreement is to provide the necessary funds for staff compensation and other necessary expenses for the Psychological Strategy Board and for the Director and his staff.

1. The Departments of State and Defense and the Central Intelligence Agency each agree to advance funds to a working fund, which working funds will be available for support of the Board and the Director's staff. Equal amounts as mutually agreed upon shall be provided by each of the three agencies unless a different scale of advances shall be mutually agreed upon. The working funds shall be available for expenditure under the direction of the Director of the Board, including reimbursement to other appropriations, for the employment of personnel, for the hiring of temporary experts and consultants, and for the procurement of necessary supplies, services, and equipment. It shall also be available for travel expenses for the Director and members of his staff, other personnel assigned to the work of the Board, and temporary experts and consultants while engaged on business for the staff in accordance with travel orders issued by the Department of State, and chargeable to the working fund.

2. The Department of State undertakes to provide full administrative support to the Director. Personnel employed for duty with the Director will either be appointed in the Department of State and paid directly from the working fund, or paid by the Department of State from its own funds which shall be reimbursed from the working fund. The Department of State may secure equipment, materials, or services, including personal services for the Director from Defense or CIA. Such contributions may be paid from the working fund or offset against future contributions.

3. The members of the Board shall approve subject to availability of funds and with concurrence of respective Budget officers or their Departments and agencies the amount of funds to be made available for the work of the Board and the staff after review of a budget developed by the Director.

4. The Director will normally reimburse the Department of State for expenses directly attributable to the Board such as equipment, supplies and materials provided to PSB or consumed in production for PSB, contractual services, and communications. No change will be made for the general impact of PSB requirements upon the central services and facilities of State except by agreement with State, Defense and CIA.

5. The legal authority to transfer along with the funds all authorities, waivers, and limitations as carried in the original source of such funds, should be cited as part of this agreement.
